CHINU'S STORY

Once upon a time, a Chongqing dog was being chased by animal catchers through a bustling city, carrying her young pup by the grip of her teeth. She soon approached a river and saw a log floating in the reeds. She knew this was her only chance to save her innocent puppy from the dog catchers, so she placed him on the log and nudged it out into the stream.

The log drifted down the winding river all night long until it came to a stop at a riverbank. A chilli farmer was fishing when he spotted the shivering puppy still desperately clinging on. He dropped his fishing rod and hurried over to him. He couldn't believe what he was seeing, as this was not the first time this had happened (A Shiba Inu had washed up on these riverbanks long before).

He decided to take the Chongqing puppy back to his chilli farm. The farmer and his wife wrapped him up in a warm blanket and fed him meat from their table, and soon he was fast asleep. As they watched this lost, beautiful puppy slowly recovering from his long journey, they wondered what to name him. Suddenly, the farmer said, "I know! We will call him CHINU." And as if he knew, Chinu opened one eye, looked at the farmer, and fell back asleep.

As the years passed on the chilli farm, Chinu became a prominent member of the family, helping the farmer with his work in the fields and guarding the farm alongside his best friend Shiba Inu. As he became bigger and stronger, Chinu also grew a strange love for chillis. He would eat so many that one day, the farmer noticed that Chinu was starting develop a blinding red glow.

And this is how the story of Chinu began....♥
